Judge WELLS of the U. S. District Court for Missouri, following in the wake of Mr. Thomas H. Benton, has decided the U. S. Bankrupt Law unconstitutional, so far as it provides for Voluntary Bankruptcy. We hear that this decision was made against the unanimous voice of the Bar of his Court. The grounds assumed are that, when the Federal Constitution was formed, compulsory Bankruptcy was alone known to the English law, and that this alone must have been intended !-- a cavil which was annihilated by Mr. Webster five years ago. The effect of this decision is of course to deny certificates of discharge to all applicants in that Court until the question can be reviewed by the Supreme Court at Washington next winter. Of the result there, we think there can be no

BURNING AT SEA .- LOSS OF THE SHIP ST Louis, or Boston .- On the 30th of August the brig Impulse, on her voyage from Baltimore to Kingston, Jamaica, fell in with the ship St. Louis of and from Boston for New Orleans, on fire, and took from her the Captain, crew and passengers, twenty-four in number. So rapid was the progress of the flames, that before those on board the Impulse had lost sight of the St. Louis, she had burned to the water's edge.

The fire was first discovered in the ludy's cabin, about seven o'clock on the evening of the 29th .-The vessel had therefore been on fire all night, and part of the next day, before she was fallen in with by the Impulse. What a night of horror that must have been on board the burning ship.

Part of the cargo of the St. Louis was insured in Wall street. The vessel, we presume, is underwritten at Boston. The St. Louis sailed from Boston on the 12th of August.

Loss or BRIG IMPELSE .- On the 3d of September, four days after the event recorded above, the Impulse was cast away on the Cayogus reef, and vessel and cargo were a total loss. The passengers and crews of the two vessels were saved, and arrived at Turks Island.

The above information is communicated by Captain Blakely, of the schooner Exchange, arrived here this morning from Turks Island.

BARK TALENT .- Captain Blakely also informs us that the bark Talent, (before reported as ashore) is a total loss, both vessel and cargo. [Com. Advertiser.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE .- A fire broke out between 3 and 9 o'clock last night, in the valuable block of stores on the east side of East Bay, known as Prioleau's Range. When first discovered the flames were issuing from the rear of the store in the occupation of Mr. John C. Burckmyre, and quickly communicated to those on the North, occupied by Mr. John S. Jones and Mr. F. Lanneau, the contents of all of which, countaining much valuable property, were entirely consumed. Two stores on the North and South corners were unoccupied, but were destroyed with the others. The flames, by most unparalleled exertions, for which the Fire Department deserve great credit, were confined to the block in which they originated. The wind was blowing fresh from the Eastward, and the quantity of combustible material in one of the stores induced apprehension for the safety of the property on the West side of the Bay, but fortunately we have had recently heavy rains, that prevented the spread of the fire, which after burning about five hours was subdued without farther damage.

We understand that the parties are all insured to a certain extent, the block of stores in the Charleston Insurance and Trust Company for $50,000, and Messrs. Burckmyer, Lanneau and Jones in the same office for $10,000 each. Mr. Jones an additional $10,000 in the Augusta and Banking Insurance Company. The less of property cannot be less than $100,000.

We are serry to add that Mr. Burckmyer ha lost all his most valuable books and papers. It is not known how the fire originated, but there can be but little doubt of its being the act of an [Charleston, Pat. Sept.26.

SINGULAR AND FATAL OCCURRENCE .- The Wiskonsan Gleaser, published at Swaville, states that on the 4th instant a most singular and fatal accident occurred to a Miss Josephine Moorhouse of that village. It appears she had called upon a young dentist for the purpose of having a tooth extracted. As soon as he had applied the 'turnkey to the tooth, he gave it a very sudden and violent twist, which instead of extracting the tooth dislocated her neck. Medical aid was immediately called in, but it was of no avail, the vital spark had fled. Considerable excitement existed in the village against the dentist, who had prudently left the place by the advice of his friends.

ACCIDENT ON THE NORWICH RAILROAD .- The downward train of passenger cars on the Norwich and Worcester Railroad met with an accident last evening, at about 8 o'clock, just after passing the Plainfield depot, involving much life, but luckily not human life. The engine came in contact with a drove of cattle which had quietly placed themselves in a narrow passage between two banks of sand, and after killing five of them ran into the bank and was smashed almost to atoms. The tender, baggage and express cars, &c., were either overturned or turned over upon each other. Happily neither the engineer nor fireman was much injured, and none of the passengers were injured in the least. A hand-car was sent to Norwich, and another train went up and took off the passengers. Several of the rails were tern up. [Com. Adv.

A THEOLOGICAL LOAFER .- The public are cautioned against a young man who is going about the city in the character of a theological student, seeking for aid. He professes to be of Irish extraction-gives his name sometimes as A. H. Robinson-claims to have the acquaintance and recommendation of Professor Robinson, and occasionally to be also his relative. It is hardly necessery to add that he is an imposter, and probably varies his story to suit different circumstances. Com. Adv.

MURDER IN GROTON .- We learn by a letter from the Lowell Courier office, that a man by the name of Dans beat another man by the name of Jonathan Lawrence, which caused his death. The particulars which led to the death of Lawrence are as follows: Lawrence went to Dans's house, which is in his neighborhood, and found Dans abusing a child of his wife by a former husband. Lawrence interfered, and was attacked by Dans and beaten sale badly. He left the house, and was found by the roadside by some neighbors and conveyed home, where he died soon after. Dans has been arrested on the charge of murder.

The steel plate of the full length portrait of the Hon. Hen ry Clay is now offered for sale or exchange, at a fair valuation, in whole or in part payment for a small farm. The engraving has been executed at a very great expense by the best engraver in the United State, and no pains have been spared is the workmanship. The plate has scarcely been used, a few only having been printed. It being steel the printer says it will yield 10,000 impressions, which no doubt can readily be sold at $2 each by any person who would make it their business and interest themselves in it. It is an excellent likeness of Clay, as letters and opinions can be shown to that effect

As the question of the next Presidential election is now agitated, and Mr. Clay being unanimously named as the candidate, it is confidently believed that even a greater number than the plate will produce can be easily disposed of. The plate, after printing ten thousand, can be re-treached.

The plate, after printing ten thousand, can be ed at a trilling expense, whereby 5000 more can be obtained

These statements are from an experienced Bank Note These statements are from an experienced Bank Note Printer, and can be relied upon. It would give lucrative employment to a person, for a year or more, travelling in every part of the United States. The sales would be nearly all profit, as the expense for printing and paper is but triding. It is an oppertunity very rarely to be met with, and if rightly managed, will prove extremely profitable. The reason for offering it for sale is, that the owner cannot give it the requisite attention without interfering with other hand. it the requisite attention without interfering with other bush it the requisite attention without the requisite attention with the rest. HENRY CLAY.

The beautiful engraving of the Hom Henry CLAY, is now published, after considerable unexpected delay, occasioned by the engraver expending more labor on the plate than he anticipated, and it is beped that the extra care be-stowed upon it will amply repay any disappointment. It is from the original full length portrait, by Linen, painted ex-pressly for the purpose, in 1839, and is executed in the best style of Merzotint on steel, and the publisher has no hesitation in saying it is the best work ever produced in the Uni-ted States, and, as it is entirely American, he takes pleasure in comparing it to some of the best specimens of English engravings.

As to the likeness, the following certificates from some of Mr. Ciay's most intimate friends are submitted, whose opinions are entitled to confidence, and also a letter from

MR. CLAY'S LETTER.

ASHLAND, June 1, 1839.

Dear Sir,—I received your letter, requesting my opinion of the portrait taken of me, by Mr. Linen, last winter. I thought it was uncommonly good, and several of my friends, to whose inspection it was submitted, pronounced it the most accurate of any of me they had seen. The resemblance was very perfect, and Mr. Linen was more fortunate to catching a good expression, they most of the artists who in catching a good expression, then most of the artists who have preceded him. With great respect,

I am your obedient servant,

HENRY CLAY,

MR. LINEN'S LETTER.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28, 1840.

Dear Sir,—I have the pleasure of informing you that your engraving of Mr. Clay is now completed, and gives me much satisfaction. I occasionally examined the proofs, during its progress, and I think Mr. Sartain has been very successful in catching the spirit of the original.

Yours truly, George Linen.

SYMPATHY.—Dear sir: I have noticed several of your certificates are in the form of a letter. I have adopted the same method, the better to express my feelings as they were and are now. I was afflicted with the Liver Complaint for about twelve years. Last August I was taken much worse, it was thought advisable to go to the country—I went, but continued to get worse every day—my physicians said I had the Liver Complaint and affection of the lunes. They propounced my case incurable—them of the lunes. they opposed my returning kome, as they thought I would die an the way, and only have to be brought back to be horight back to be brief, as it was our family burying place. In this state I returned to the city, without any hopes of relief. My symptoms returned to the city, without any hopes of relief. My symptons were pains in my sides, shooting through the top of my shoulder blades, pain and faintiess at the pit of my stomach, backing cough, great distress in my back, heetle, raised considerable matter, feet very much swollen, and indeed every symptom of Consumption. I was suffering in this state when my husband saw an advertisement in the Sun, of a person cured under your treatment. I then resolved to try the same remedy, as a last effort, and a most happy result followed.

I had only taken one-and-a-half bottles when most all the above alarming symptons abated. I continued in the use of above alarming symptons abated. I continued in the use of your Carmina tia until I had taken eight bottles, and I now enjoy better health than I have for many years before.—

This, Doctor, I give you, knowing there are a large number of females afflicted with diseases without knowing of any remedy, when, if they were to hear of any person being cured they would be induced to try the same specific.— It is no more than serving the cause of burnanty to let every female know of what benefit this medicine has been to me female know of what benefit this medicine has been to me in restoring me to heal in, which is the greatest blessing. I know it is a very delicate thing for any lady to have her mane in the public papers, but gradinade and sympathy prompts one to this, for the hencefit of others. Pity for those suffering, and gratitude to the Doctor, for the great relief received under his treatment.

Persons that are incressious by calling on me at my re-sidence will find this statement fully corrorated.

DR. RUSH'S LEGACY.—That celebrated physician, Dr. Benjamin Rush, could not have lett a more valuable legacy to mankind than his invaluable HEALTH PILL. It is indeed a blessing to the afflicted, giving relief in all the usual cases of sudden illness or lingering disease with which humanity is disressed or the functions of life are destroyed. It is now canceled by the most eminent of the medical faculty, that the stomach is the seat or fountain of all disease; that it is, as it were; the centre from which proceed all the evils produced by foreign or irritating causes, and which thence spread to every part of the animal system.

The proper method of cure, therefore, is to attack the citadel in which the disease intrenches itself; and no combination of medical agents has yet been discovered so efficiently the preparation of the late Dr. cacious for this purpose as the preparation of the late Dr. Resh, and which, from the universal success attending their administration, during a practice of nearly half a century, were styled his "Infalible Health Pill." Their great virtue is that they arrest disease in its first approach. They are preventives as well as remedies; and we will venture to say that if taken by persons when they are first affected with symptoms of illness, many a case, that is either serious or fatal, might be avoided.

Let the afflicted without hesitation avail themselves of this invaluable legacy, and they will have reason to bless the mankird.

THE cry of 'Murder!' 'Murder!' at all times will arouse the most stupid. Yet murders are daily perpetrated which excite very little attention. Is not Consumption daily murdering thousands of human being? Does not Asthma render life a burthen, and then destroy it victim? Does not Bronchitis paralyze the usefulnes of many of our most eminent divines and other public speakers, to say nothing of the thousands of all ages and sets who are swept into eteraity by it? Millions of human beings sink down and sie by attacks of the above and similar affections of the lungs and throat. Portunately for man life in the state of the lungs and throat. Portunately for man to fail is giving relief, and has, in thousands of incated. kind, JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT has never beenknown to fail in giving relief, and has, in thousands of inflances, effected permanent cures after all other means had failed.
